Cadenza

Alam Sutera - Tangerang

Image 1 - Reception Area

The concept of "cadenza" in music, representing a beautiful solo melody and the harmonious conclusion of phrases, evokes a sense of homecoming—a feeling masterfully embodied in the Cadenza Indonesia showroom, nestled within Open Door Alam Sutera.

This newly launched space captures the warmth and comfort of a cherished friend's home, making it a popular destination for architects, interior designers, and their clients. Here, visitors not only select premium construction materials but also experience genuine hospitality, engaging in heartfelt conversations over glasses of wine.

Designed by Domisilium Studio, the showroom's design resonates with the calming, fluid qualities of its musical namesake. Every element within the space speaks of subtle elegance, showcasing a curated collection of high-quality, durable, and environmentally friendly materials from the esteemed Spanish brand, Cosentino. From natural stones to sleek faucets, these offerings support clients in bringing their design visions to life.

The showroom's second floor serves as its vibrant core, inviting guests to unwind on plush Grado sofas amidst understated yet sophisticated décor. Owner Sugio Budiman fosters an environment that feels like home, encouraging clients to cook, eat, drink, and socialize. Conveniently located in Alam Sutera, with easy access from Jakarta and Tangerang, the showroom is designed to inspire and connect, playing a pivotal role in the creative community.
