

AM LOUNGE

SCBD

The interior of the lounge is inspired by the fluid, powerful energy of a tornado, capturing the electrifying essence of nightlife. The sweeping curves and sculptural forms throughout the space reflect the dynamic movement of a tornado, creating a sense of motion and flow. These bold design elements shape the layout, guiding guests through the room with an organic, swirling effect that enhances both the visual impact and social interaction within the space.

Each detail is crafted to amplify the vibrant nightlife experience. From the curved seating arrangements to the dramatic lighting that highlights the architectural forms, the design immerses guests in an atmosphere full of energy and excitement. The tornado-inspired concept gives the space its distinct character, making it the perfect backdrop for unforgettable nights.

The flow of the central bar in AM Lounge plays a key role in creating both a functional and social focal point. Strategically placed in the middle of the lounge, the bar ensures easy access from all seating areas, drawing guests in and promoting interaction. Its circular design echoes the lounge's overall tornado-inspired layout, seamlessly integrating the bar into the space and allowing the energy to flow naturally around it.

The seating around the bar enhances social engagement, with curved arrangements that ensure visibility and connection between guests at the bar and those in surrounding lounge areas. This layout fosters interaction while maintaining privacy for smaller groups, creating a versatile social environment. The bar's design and lighting further highlight its importance, making it a visual anchor that catches the eye from every part of the lounge.

Additionally, the bar is designed for efficiency, ensuring smooth service for both bar and lounge guests. The combination of flow, accessibility, and ambiance ensures that the central bar is not just a functional space, but the heart of the lounge's vibrant nightlife experience.

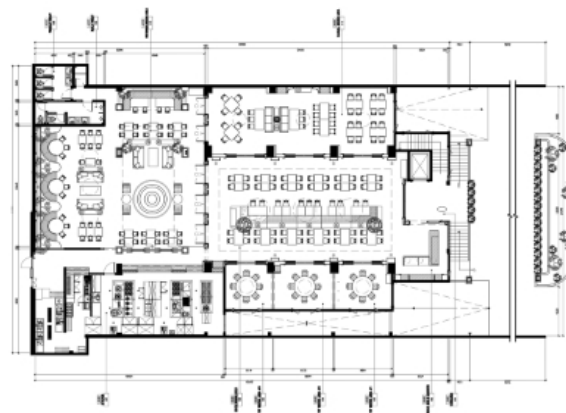

BON AMI

SURABAYA

Designed with a seamless blend of colonial charm and modern elegance, the interior offers a warm and inviting atmosphere. Intricate colonial-style details, such as high ceilings, classic wooden accents, and vintage-inspired fixtures, are complemented by sleek, minimalist furniture and soft ambient lighting. The combination of rich historical elements with contemporary design creates a space that feels both timeless and stylish, perfect for relaxed dining or social gatherings.

The layout further enhances this blend of colonial charm and modern elegance. The courtyard (outdoor seating) offers a relaxed, open-air experience, surrounded by lush greenery and colonial-style wooden furnishings, creating an inviting space for casual gatherings. The thoughtful placement of tables provides ample room for privacy
