The Importance of Art Program

To be alive and functional, interior design needs to be more than just existing, surviving, or aesthetically pleasing. Adding vibe to existing space gives a whole different experience and atmospheric quality. The result is a truly alive and vibe living. It means a live that is meaningful, mindful, enjoyable, filled with connection, and positive energy. Alive and vibe living is a complete wellbeing.

SANQUA

"Alir"

The artwork of SanQua is inspired by the four springs originating from Cinere, Cimanggis, Citeureup, and Cilimus, flowing into the corners and crevices of Jakarta, Banten, and West Java.

In addition to the immense role of being a source of life, water has a flexible nature that allows it to adapt to the shape of its container, and water always flows toward its estuary, as if to symbolize life with a purpose.
